

Lasting Power of Attorney Checklist

	Married/Civil Partnership /Living together	Lasting Power of Attorney
Access to partner's bank account	✘	✓
Sell your jointly owned home	✘	✓
Make an insurance claim	✘ Unless the policy is in joint names	✓
Claiming partner's critical illness cover	✘ Unless the policy is in joint names	✓
Paying road tax on a partner's car	✘DVLA will accept payment but not issue refunds on somebody else's behalf nor will they discuss the vehicle records	✓
Renewing insurance policies	✘	✓
Paying utilities bills	✘Most utility companies will accept payment but not issue refunds on somebody else's behalf nor will they discuss the account	✓
Accessing online shopping accounts e.g.Amazon	✘	✓
Paying credit card bills	✘They will accept payment but not issue refunds on somebody else's behalf nor will they discuss the account	✓
Accessing passwords to use mobile, computer or tablets	✘	✓
Talking to healthcare professionals	✓They will listen to your views but you have no legal authority to make decisions	✓
Making decisions about healthcare options	✘	✓
Discussing return to work options with partner's employer	✘	✓